

[GFY Image Submission Requirements]

Images will be posted on the official GFY website under the following conditions:

This project is conducted by Evolving G Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "the Company").

- Only photos of the GFY message card you filled out are accepted.
- Photos containing unrelated characters or elements to GFY will be excluded.
- If a person is recognizable and present in the photo, be sure to obtain their permission before submitting.
- Submitted images must meet the following conditions:
 1. The photo must not infringe, or be likely to infringe, the copyright, portrait rights, privacy or other rights of any third party.
 2. The photo must not be for profit or publicity, or must not contain political or religious intent.
 3. The photo must not be inappropriate, such as slanderous or offensive to public order and morals.
- In addition to the above conditions, the Company reserves the right to determine other inappropriate content and may choose to discontinue the publication at our discretion.
- The timing of the post will be determined by the Company. We do not accept inquiries about non-posting reasons or posting timing.
- Changes or replacements of submitted images are not possible.
- Note that the photos may be cropped to fit the size, or lightly altered with exposure or color correction.
- The Company reserves the right to discontinue the publication at our discretion
- Participants are responsible for all costs that may be charged in the process of participating, including the cost of internet connection.
- We are not responsible for any reactions from third parties regarding the content of the message card you provided.
- Your participation is subject to the privacy policy set forth by the Company. You can review the policy at <https://gundam-factory.net/en/privacy>